

14 August 1973

MEMORANDUM FOR: ADDO

SUBJECT: Prohibition Against Police Training

1. As a matter of information, there is quoted below a new provision appearing in the Foreign Assistance Act of 1973:

Sec. 115. Prohibiting Police Training. — No part of any appropriation made available to carry out this or any other provision of law shall be used to conduct any police training or related program for a foreign country.

2. You will note that this purports to have very broad coverage and is not limited to funds made available under the Foreign Assistance Act. You may wish to determine if there are any activities that might appear to be within the scope of this amendment. We can then consider the legal effect of the statute, possibly delving into the legislative history if this is warranted.
